YOU’RE AWESOME!

Celebrated annually around the globe, Pink Shirt Day began in Canada in 2007 when two students took a stand against homophobic bullying after a new student was harassed for wearing pink.

By celebrating Pink Shirt Day, you’re showing your school or workplace has zero tolerance for bullying and helping to make Aotearoa a kinder, more inclusive place for all New Zealanders.

Thank you for joining us to Kōrero Mai, Kōrero Atu, Mauri Tū, Mauri Ora – Speak Up, Stand Together, Stop Bullying!

continue delivering resources that celebrate diversity, spread aroha and prevent bullying in Aotearoa.
